The Center for Asian and Pacific Studies at San Diego State University and the San Diego Indian American Society present a symposium on

Indian Thought and the Contemporary World

Guest Speaker: Rev. Swami Nikhileswarananda
Head, Ramakrishna Mission in Vadodara, India
“Indian Ethos for Modern Management”

---

Panel Speakers:

Professor Bruce Naschak,
San Diego Mesa College
“Mystical Experience as a Unifying Force in Religion.”

Professor Sandra A. Wawrytko,
San Diego State University
“Critical Thinking in the Pali Suttas.”

Professor Lance Nelson,
University of San Diego
“Overcoming Divides: Resources for Peacebuilding in Indian Thought”

Professor Sthaneshwar Timalsina,
San Diego State University
“Relevance of Vedanta in the Modern World.”

---

When: October 13, 2015

Where: San Diego State University
Storm Hall West Room 12

Time: 7:00 to 9:30 pm

Note: Parking permit required
$2 per hour, $10 whole day.